Director's Message

The Sydney Stereo Camera Club started last year with a new Wide Screen and a pair of Full HD 1920x1080 format projectors. The plan was to use the wide screen for special occasions as the screen is more time consuming to set up. The Southern Cross Exhibition was one of these special occasions but seeing the results of last year's exhibition it was decided to use the full format and screen for all meetings. Thankyou to those that help set up each month. So even though this year's exhibition was no longer a wide screen special, as we now only use the wide screen, the exhibition was still an event worth seeing.

The Southern Cross International exhibition was well supported this year with 54 people entering images in the open section with 48 also entering images in the Landscape/Seascape section as well. We had five new entrants this year and three medals were awarded to new entrants. The third year with a landscape/Seascape category had more entering this year. The quality overall continues to improve and made a great show for the exhibition. We will be continue with the Landscape/Seascape category in 2016 so get out there and start photographing some great landscapes for next year.

This year's main exhibition screening was held at our Sydney Stereo Camera Club meeting room in Sydney on Tuesday 21st of April 2015, where SSCC members, members of various camera clubs and members of the general public had been invited to attend and enjoy the exhibition. Due to a low pressure super storm off the coast and torrential rain in Sydney for the previous 48 hours and even a premiers message to leave home early from work, we had a small turnout of dedicated club members and 2 visitors. We had a fun dry night enjoying the beautiful images of the exhibition. The Second screening of the Southern Cross will be at the 24th Australian National Stereo photography convention held in Ballarat, Victoria. The Southern Cross exhibition will also have screenings at the Victorian 3D Society in Melbourne and at the New Zealand Stereoscopic Society in Auckland New Zealand later in the year.

A special thank you to our selection panel (Judges), Nancy Moxom, Ray Moxom and Carlton Wright. We had a great evening selecting the images for the exhibition.

My thanks to all who entered this year's exhibition. Without your participation the Southern Cross would not be possible. It is always a pleasure for us here in Australia to view the work of photographers from around the world. Congratulations to the major award winners and HM awardees. I am looking forward to your entries again next year.
